Wadhurst, East Sussex, U.K.

Call for entries 2010

The September Art Exhibition, Wadhurst, established 1996 is an open exhibition and will run this year from 2nd - 12th September. The exhibition was established by artists seeking to create an accessible and varied show, it achieves high visitor numbers and has an excellent reputation with consistently strong sales. The exhibition is non-profit making with free entry to visitors. For participating artists it is a friendly, professional and enjoyable event.

There are no restrictions on who may apply, work must be original, eligible work includes paintings, drawings, limited edition prints, photography, sculpture etc.

Applications to exhibit are free

Each artist will have:-

- 2, 3, or 4 panels to display their work
- An entry in the illustrated show guide and an allocated page on the website - which will feature their work, together with contact details and links, and will be on display for a full year
- Private view invitations and benefits of local advertising

The exhibition takes place in a secure, well lit venue, using specially designed panels. Each panel is 4 feet wide by 8 feet high with a minimum of 2 panels per artist. Panels cost £95 each - 2,3 or 4 may be requested - we may not be able to offer a full allocation. Sculptors, ceramicists, etc will be allocated floor space 6 feet X 6 feet - cost £180.

No commission is charged on art sales

Sales are handled by the organising committee who will be in attendance throughout the show. Artists may show in two consecutive years but are then asked to take a year out before re-applying - in this way the show stays fresh and always has space for new people.

Val Brinton, the founder of the show, has stepped down from the organising committee this year. To mark this occasion we are introducing the Val Brinton Bursary which will offer one free place to exhibit to a school or college student.
